

RESUME OFFENSIVE AGAINST VERDUN; GERMANS REPULSED

ONLY IN ONE PLACE HAVE GER-MANS MADE ANY GAINS
SAYS PARIS

WHITE STAR LINER WILL ARM

Steamship Bound For Italy Will Take On Guns On Reaching Gibraltar

(Associated Press)
The violent German offensive on Verdun has been resumed with desperate fighting around the north strongholds. Paris claims to have repulsed all German attacks except west of Fort Douaumont, where the Germans reached the village of Douaumont. The fighting still continues there.

Berlin says the Germans cleared
the village and pushed their lines
south and west of the armored fort yesterday. More than 1,000 prisoners were taken and a number of heavy guns were captured.

Liner Will Arm
The White Star liner Canpolie, which sailed from New York today for Italy with three Americans in the first cabin, will take on armament when she arrives at Gibraltar. The armament will be removed when the ship reaches Gibraltar on the return voyage, as a result of an order of the British Admiralty.

Washington, Mar. 3.—Growth kindignation is felt in state department circles over what is regarded as an organized propaganda, directed not only from German centers in this country, but from the foreign office in Berlin, to scare the American congress and the people of this country into the belief that President Wilson's course in the handling of the submarine issue is leading to war.

To the same extent officials resent strongly reports being spread broadcast in Berlin and being printed in Berlin newspapers as though based on reports being received from Washington by the German foreign office
that congress is lined up anywhere from two to one to five to one against the President's insistence on the right of Americans to travel on British merchant vessels armed for defense. Information concerning these Berlin reports was contained in a lengthy cablegram received at the state department from U. S. Ambassador Gerard, who declared that the impression existed strongly in the German capital in official circles as well as on the streets, that the President has the backing of neither of congress nor the country.

Clark's Statement Reaches Berlin.
The German embassy denies that any reports concerning the opposition to the President in congress had been sent to Berlin by the ambassador. It was remarked in German quarters
here, however, that the Berlin newspapers had doubtless received full reports of the statements printed in this country concerning Speaker Clark's observations to the President when he informed the chief executive that the house would vote at least two to one against him.

Cerent Von Bernstorff refused absolutely to comment on these reports.

Refining Tapioca.
This elegant and delicate starch is the product of a plant that is cultivated very extensively in the Malay peninsula, where its culture is almost entirely in the hands of the Chinese.
The tubers of the plant (Manihot utilis-sima), which weigh on an average from ten to twenty-five pounds, are first scraped and then carefully washed, after which they are reduced to a pulp by being passed between rollers.
This pulp is carefully washed and shaken up with abundance of water
until the fecula separates and passes through a very fine sieve into a tub placed beneath. The flour so obtained is repeatedly washed and then placed on mats and bleached by exposure to the sun and air. It is finally converted into the pearl tapioca of commerce by being placed in a crude shaped frame covered with canvas. It is slightly moistened and subjected to a rotary motion, by which means it is granulated. It is next dried in the sun and shaded over the fire in an iron pan greased with vegetable tallow and is then ready for the market.

REGIMENT POLITICS IS BEING AGITATED

CANDIDATES FOR OFFICES IN SIXTH INF. N. G. ARE SPRINGING UP.

Line officers of Company G who will participate in the election at Moline Monday to choose a colonel of the regiment to succeed W. F. Lawrie, deceased, have received announcements of the candidacy of several officers of the regiment for the positions which it is expected will be made vacant by the elevation of ranking officers.

There is little doubt that Lieut. Col.
Davis will be chosen colonel, and thus far Major Reig is the only one of the three majors who has announced himself for Mr. Davis' place. Capt. Dunham of Rock Island and Capt. Cavanagh of Oak Park have made known their desire to succeed Major Reig if he is promoted.

FACULTY TEAM OVERWHELMED

played at the high school gym after school Thursday, the Dixon high school basketball team easily defeated a team from the faculty of the school, score 58 to 1. The faculty team, with no practice, was no match
for the youngsters, and the teachers'
one point was made on a free throw by Hirschman. The North Dixon girls' team defeated a south side girls' organization, 14 to 0 in the preliminary.

SOME BIG PROPERTY TRANSFERS NOTED

VALUABLE LEE COUNTY LAND CHANGED HANDS FIRST OF THE MONTH.

200 INSTRUMENTS ARE FILED

The number of changes of land ownership and renewal and paying off of loans in Lee county this year appears to be greater than for a number of years, judging from the rush of business at the office of Recorder E.
S. Roscreans. Thursday there were 71 instruments filed for record, falling
but two short of the preceding day.
Up to noon today there had been two dozen filed. In the first four days of the week the total number was 200.

Some of the amounts in the deeds are large, showing that the price of Lee county land is increasing. The largest transaction yesterday was that of Levi Beemer to Modest L. Gehant, in which he transferred part of the northeast quarter and part of the
northeast quarter and part of the east township, consideration $50,- 500. Another was the sale by Elizabeth Fiscal to Lee Fiscal of the west half, northwest quarter and west half,
southwest quarter section 32, Nachu-sa, consideration $22,000. Others exceeded $10,000. As it is necessary to place a dollar revenue stamp for each $1,000 consideration in the instrument many papers had several dollars worth of stamps attached.

GERMAN EDITOR IS CALLER ON WILSON

Paul E. Mueller, Chicago, Expresses Loyalty.

Washington, Mar. 3.—Paul F. Mueller of Chicago, president of the newly formed National Association of German Publishers and editor of the Chicago Abendpost, told President Wilson he believed the great majority of German-Americans were loyal to the United States. He was accompanied by State Senator Kent E. Keller of Illinois.

The President told Mr. Mueller he felt confident German-Americans in common with other Americans of foreign birth were loyal to the country of their adoption.

Mr. Mueller declared there was absolutely no political significance in his call at the White House, that he was supporting the President and had been a Democrat for many years. He said the German publishers' association was attempting to arrange for a news service out of Washington for German-American papers.

Adjutant Under Lee Dies.

ter H. Taylor, well known throughout

Lee in the civil war and served with

Ever Stop to Think of This?

By MOSS.
You owe a lot to truthful advertising. For one thing you owe
something of your good health.

Today the grocer sells
more articles in sanitary packages and cans than ever.

Today the butcher
sells meat that is more thoroughly inspected and guaranteed than ever.

Today the baker fur-

more sanitary conditions

Advertising as a

WILL PROTECT CLAMS IN RIVER FOR YEAR

STATE FISH AND GAME COM-MISSION MAKES ROCK RIVER
MUSSEL RESERVE

Springfield, Ill., Mar. 3.—The state
fish and game commission set apart
the Rock river and its tributaries as a fresh water mussel preserve for one year, April 15, 1916, to April 15, 1917, when it will be unlawful to remove mussels or clams under penalty.

At the same time the commission fixed an open season on carp between Sept. 1, 1916, and Dec. 1, 1916, in Rock river.

NORTH DIXON HOME DAMAGED BY FIRE

RESIDENCE OF B. J. HAUSHEER, W. CHAMBERLAIN ST., WAS BADLY BURNED.

FURNITURE HAD BEEN REMOVED

The residence of B. J. Hausheer, 215 West Chamberlain street, was badly damaged by fire and water this afternoon, when the roof of the dwelling was practically consumed by flames which originated from sparks from the chimney. Fortunately, after the fire was discovered by passersby,
it was possible to remove all of the furniture from all except one bed room on the upper floor of the house, and the damage therefore is largely confined to the building. The plaster in the upper rooms is badly water-soaked and, in fact, the water caused damage throughout the entire house.

Mr. and Mrs. Hausheer knew that the chimney was burning out at noon,
but after a careful investigation they could find nothing alarming, and consequently turned in no fire alarm. It is possible that sparks got under the shingles, however, starting the blaze which the wind fanned rapidly, and when the fire was discovered it had gained considerable headway. The damage will at least equal the amount of insurance, $1,000.

for Duis' men and they took two of three games. This places the Duis and

PARENTS - TEACHERS ASSN. IN N. DIXON

PRELIMINARY MEETING OF OR-GANIZATION COMMITTEE TO BE HELD TONIGHT

SECURE PATRONS CO-OPERATION

Parents-teachers' Association, to secure greater co-operation between teachers and parents of the pupils,
is to be organized in North Dixon;
and a preliminary meeting of a committee named to frame by-laws and details of the organization will be held at the school this evening.
The committee is: Chairman George
R. Runion, E. B. Raymond, K. J.
Reed, Mrs. A. G. Burnham, Mrs. W.
H. Coppins, Miss Gladys Gaylord
and Miss Janette Gebhardt.

Parents-teachers' associations are common in the larger cities and it is said they have resulted in great good for the schools and more rapid advance of the pupils. The cooperation which results brings more effective school work on the part of the students and also maintains a greater public interest in the school. The first meeting of the North Dixon association will probably be held within a month or six weeks, at which time a speaker of prominence will be secured to thoroughly acquaint all patrons of the school of the objects and possibilities of the proposed organization.

TRY TO BLOW UP NEWSPAPER

Bomb Is Exploded in Office of Providence Journal.

Providence, R. I., Mar. 3.—An unsuccessful attempt was made shortly after 9 o'clock at night to blow up the Providence Journal office. A bomb of some nature was made use of, but it was either not powerful enough to accomplish the desired purpose or went wrong, for before starting what was promised to be a serious blaze,
the fire was extinguished with a loss of not more than $2,000. The fire was started in a file of newspapers in the office of the morning editor.

The Providence Journal has been the most pronounced newspaper in the United States in exposing and flaying the German propaganda. Its exposures resulted in the recall of Captains Boy Ed and Von Papen.

BRITISH TAKE OLD POSITION

Gain on Ypres-Comines Regains Lost Ground and Adds New.

London, Mar. 3.—After several days of artillery activity along the British front in Artois the British made a successful infantry attack on the position overlooking the Ypres-Comines canal which they lost on Feb. 14. Not only was the lost position regained
but the attack penetrated and captured a small salient in the original German line.

There was much artillery activity
on both sides from Vierstraet to Boesinghe.

stated, will be called up by March 15.

American citizens abroad.

tained Thursday Eve

The concert given by the North Dixon school orchestra at the school

decidedly pleasing event, and the young musicians surprised even their ticipants displayed praiseworthy ability. The entertainment will be

WILSON VICTOR IN SENATE BY VOTE OF 68 TO 14

WARNING RESOLUTION BEATEN
BY BIGGER VOTE THAN WAS EXPECTED.

"WAR OR HUMILIATION" COMING

Senator Sherman Says That Wilson's Course Will Lead to One or the Other.

(Associated Press)

Washington, March 3.—By a vote of 68 to 14, a greater majority than was expected, the administration for ces in the senate today tabled Senator Gore's resolution to warn Americans off the armed ships of the belligerents, and thereby finally quelled in the senate the agitation which has embarrassed President Wilson's submarine negotiations with Germany.

Kill Three Measures

Gore's resolution, a substitute by McCumber, republican, and an attempt by Gore to strengthen his original proposal to make it the sense of the senate that the death of an American on an unwarned merchant
man would be just cause for war,
all were defeated at one time on the roll call on Senator James' (Kentucky) motion to table them.

Galleries Packed

The senate floor was crowded with senators and representatives and the galleries were packed when the vote was taken. Mrs. Wilson was present.

Earlier in the day Senator Owen, Gore's colleague, conferred with President Wilson, and he said later that he had found Gore's statement, which amazed the senate yesterday
to be without foundation. Owen said he would support Wilson.

Fight in House

With the administration victory
in the senate the fight is now transferred to the house. Acting Chairman Pau of the house committee on rules conferred with the President today and told him victory for his position was sure in the house.

Gore Voted "Nay."

Gore himself voted to table his resolution. Chamberlain and O'Gorman were the only democrats who voted against the administration, the other twelve anti-administration votes being republicans; 47 democrats and 21
republicans voted to table the resolution.

Borah, Chamberlain, Clapp, Cum-
mis, Fall, Gallagher, Gronna, Jones, LaFollette, McCumber, Morris, O'Gor-
man, Sherman and Morris voted "nay."

Among those voting "aye" were Smith of Michigan, Kern, Lewis, Owen, Lodge and Stone.

"Can Gag Senate."

Jones, republican, declared the result further befogged rather than clar-ified any issue. "Nothing has been decided today," he said, "except that the senate can be gagged absolutely.
We are not passed on this issue. A motion to table is always made to cut off debate or to avoid the issue."

A Mixed Victory.

Gore said he though the administration's victory is a mixed one, and Clark, democrat, protested against the senate's action, although he voted with the majority.

"War or Humiliation."

Senator Sherman of Illinois said:
"The senate has not disposed of the question with the dignity it demands.
We are approaching an issue of peace or war, and ultimately the way the president is traveling leads to but one choice. It will end in war or national abandonment and humiliation."

Gallinger, republican, said, "I believe we are entitled to debate on the question."

CHIMNEY FIRE

A still alarm was received at the fire station this morning at 11:40
o'clock from the Joshua Houpt home on N. Dixon avenue due to a chimney fire. The sparks were rolling out of the chimney freely, and it was thought best to call the department. No damage done.

Maryland is a northern state with a purpose of its founders, which southern accent. It is located in, was to secure religious liberty and around and among the Chesapeake Bay, which forms a port of salt water principal column for the state. Maryland is not much larger than Massachusetts, having only 10,000 square miles of land, but it is not nearly so crowded with taxpayers. Its population is about 1,400,000, almost 600,000 of whom are jammed together in Baltimore, which is the only city in the state large enough to make a fast train hesitate on its way.

Maryland was settled almost 300 years ago, its early inhabitants being attracted by the oysters in Chesapeake Bay. Maryland people have been eating oysters ever since then, and have been throwing the shells on the public roads. This has produced several hundred miles of dazzling white highways of superior excellence, and if the appetite of the people and the supply of oysters continue to hold out for another three years, there will not be a bad road in the state.

Besides paving its streets with oyster shells, Maryland ships its justly celebrated bivalves to all parts of the country. No church social would be a success without a Maryland oyster. Thus Maryland has carried out nobly

BRITAIN LOSES WARSHIP, BELIEF

Letter Tells of Death of Viking's Commander.

GERMAN RAIDER TAKEN, REPORT

Dispatches Through Buenos Aires Say Auxiliary Cruiser Moewe Has Been Taken to East of Trinidad; Germans Pin Faith on Sea Raiders, Report.

New York, Mar. 3.—Word has reached New York that the British destroyer Viking has been blown up. The officers and crew are believed to have been lost and the news of the vessel's loss came in a letter to relatives of Commander Thomas C. Williams, who went down with the ship.

Blown Up by Mine.

The Viking, according to the letter which the commander's relatives here received, was blown up by a mine. No previous intimation that disaster had overtaken this destroyer has come from the other side, and to the right British censorship is attributed the fact that this naval loss has not been made known publicly. The date of the Viking's sinking is not known, but it is believed to have occurred on Jan. 29, because in the casualty list of that date appeared notice of the death of Commander Williams in the Persian gulf in connection with which announcement it was printed in the London Times that Commander Williams was a former commander of the Syren, a British cruiser, and had received the Victoria Cross for his bravery and daring. Last October under date of Feb. 2 came the letter to the commander's relative saying: "You will be very much grieved to know that your Uncle Tom's destroyer has struck a mine and been blown up. If you know the name of his new destroyer, don't tell any one outside the family." — is heartbroken. Relatives are with her seeing after her affairs, which will be all right as far as money goes—double pension for her and baby. Baby doesn't know yet of her loss. They don't mind bombs or any thing now in Plymouth though air raids are frequent. They say the worst has happened."

Built in 1909.

The Viking was a destroyer of the "P" class, built in 1909, of 1,000 tons and carrying a complement of about seventy officers and men. She had armament of two 4-inch guns and two 18-inch torpedo tubes and was known as an "ocean going destroyer."

Sea Raider Reported Captured.

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Mar. 3.—Press dispatches from Montevideo say that a steamer arriving from Europe intercepted near the coast of Brazil a wireless message saying that the British cruiser had captured the German auxiliary cruiser Moewe.

The Moewe, it is said, was taken by the British cruiser on the island of Trinidad.

Another Version of Capture.

There is some doubt, however, as to the identity of the German vessel reported to have been captured. Another version of the account is that the vessel in question is the German cruiser Roon.

The American steamer Santa Barbara has arrived at Montevideo, where its captain makes the announcement that a French cruiser, which put out from Dakar, on the west coast of Africa, encountered a German raider, name not given, and opened fire on it. Under cover of darkness the German ship got away. It, however, was damaged on its upper works by the French fire.

Seven Vessels Sunk.

London, Mar. 3.—The sinking of seven vessels is reported. The crews of four British smacks, the Trevose, Tryon, Reliance and Harold, landed at Lowestoft. Their vessels are said to have been sunk in the North sea. The Italian sailing ship Elisa also is reported to have been sunk.

The other craft swept down are the Russian steamer Alexander Wentzel, 2,800 tons, with a loss of eighteen lives, and the French mine sweeper Au Revoir.

Thornaby Sunk by Mine.

Lloyd's agent at Blyth reports that the British steamship Thornaby was sunk by a mine on Monday last.

Germany to Use Raiders.

Amsterdam, Mar. 3.—Captain Persius, naval expert of the Berliner Tageblatt, discussing in that newspaper the new German campaign against merchant shipping, makes the assertion that it will be carried out, not so much through the medium of submarines, whose activities are hampered by diplomatic difficulties, as through disguised commerce raiders like the Moewe, which has already sunk a number of vessels of the allies and which sent the Appam to Newport News with a prize crew.

Swedish Steamer Sent Down.

Stockholm, Mar. 3.—It has been learned that the Swedish steamer Knippla was sunk about 800 yards inside the limit of Swedish waters.

Pursue Austrian Squadron.

Athens, Mar. 3.—Allies' warships in the Adriatic have pursued an Austrian squadron into Cattaro harbor, according to Corfu dispatches.

CAILLAUX ACTIVE IN POLITICS AGAIN

Wife's Shooting of Calmette No Longer Handicaps Him.

HOPES AND FEARS AROUSED

Former French Prime Minister Is Logical Leader of the Left Since Jean Jaures Has Passed Away—It Was Thought His Political Life Ended With the Killing of Editor.

Paris.—"M. Joseph Caillaux—Tres bien!"

That brief extract from the official report of a recent sitting of the chamber of deputies records a momentous moment in the war's parliamentary history. It marks the political rebirth of a man whose political life, people thought, was ended abruptly by the bullet with which his wife killed Gaston Calmette March 16, 1914.

Caillaux's words, "very good," the French equivalent for "hear, hear," were the first he has uttered publicly in the chamber since the murder of the editor of the great French newspaper Figaro. They were used to signify approval of the eulogy being delivered by Aristide Briand, the new premier. Many other deputies gave vent to similar expressions of satisfaction during M. Briand's speech, but except Caillaux none was deemed worthy of individual mention in the stenographic record of the debate.

In singling out the laudatory exclamation of M. Caillaux the official stenographer proved his news sense, and few French newspapers refrained from commenting upon the fact. Between the lines of the press comments one could read the hopes or the fears aroused by the public re-entry into the political arena of this one time prime minister of France. And in the lobbies of the Palais Bourbon the deputies, according to their political lights, denounced the glorified Caillaux's brief appearance. None of them, however, denied its sensational significance, although none knew exactly what it did signify.

Caillaux, who from having been the most powerful figure in French politics became, after M. Caillaux's crime, the most execrated man in France, is the dark horse of the present situation. He is so dark, in fact, that not even those faithful followers who stuck to him through thick and thin really know what he is driving at. They are sure, however, that he has a definite plan, and of that his manifold enemies are also aware.

Aside from the fact that his personality is such that whatever he says finds an audience, Caillaux's approval of the new premier's complimentary references to the Socialistic groups attracted attention because since the death of Jean Jaures he is the logical leader of the Left. His words smote the ears of his fellow deputies above the clamorous interruptions of the Right in such a way that there flitted swiftly about the chamber the question, "Is he going to assume that leadership?"

The correct answer to that question may have a very vital and far-reaching effect upon the present war. Were Caillaux to attain the position among the Radical and Socialist elements of which he was deprived by his wife's outrageous act the standing of any ministry of which he did not approve would be insecure indeed, for without the support of the Left no ministry could long remain in power. And there are few who would deny that the Left nowadays has no leaders of the Jaures stamp—unless it be Caillaux. That's why "is he coming back?" has become in the last few days a universal subject for whispered debate in the lobbies of the Palais Bourbon.

Although the two words spoken by Caillaux at the first appearance of the Briand ministry before the chamber formed the first definite demonstration of his presence on the political stage, his progress toward the spot light has been gradual, albeit unnoticed by any except the closest observers.

GEORGIA'S FAST RISING SON.

He is Fourteen Years Old, Six Feet Five, and is Still Growing.

Moultrie, Ga.—Doctors are puzzled and parents worried over the phenomenal growth of Harry Connelly, the fourteen-year-old son of a Colquitt county farmer three miles from here. Harry's longitude is six feet five inches, and he weighs 200 pounds. For three months his growth has been so rapid that he has outgrown a suit of clothes every week.

He was a slender boy of normal size when he suddenly started to become a beanstalk. A special bed had to be made for him, so he would not telescope while he slept. Meanwhile doctors are trying to find a diet that will keep him from growing through the roof of the house.

SEEDLESS APPLE COMING.

Californian Raises Some and Is Willing to Assist Interested Growers.

Riverside, Cal.—The birthplace of the seedless apple as well as the seedless orange is the latest claim to distinction made by Riverside. Last year P. T. Evans discovered an old tree which produced fruit which was absolutely seedless and coreless and of sweet and attractive taste. He had a number of buds removed and budded into nursery stock.

One hundred and fifty of these budded trees are now ready for planting in January, and in order to give his discovery a thorough test Evans is arranging to distribute them without charge to various parts of the county to growers who wish to assist in the experiments.

But Missed Wearer, and He's Wondering How He Escaped Death.

Winchester, Va.—Hope Beam's finger ring is in the jeweler's shop because the ruby setting was loosened by lightning. Also he is alive and well after one of the most exciting experiences of his life, having faced death in an instant's time when a bolt of lightning struck in the concrete midway between the Dendrick and Empire buildings.

Beam was shocked severely, the electricity following the wiring into the office where he was working. Several women in the office of a physician next to where the lightning struck were also shocked.

U. S. AND FRANCE TO INTERCHANGE IDEAS

Federal Trade Commission Now Studying Comptoir System.

Paris.—One effect of the war, if plans now making are carried out, will be to bring about a closer interchange of ideas, particularly commercial ideas, between the United States and France. The American federal trade commission is now studying the French comptoir system of trade, while at the same time a plan is under discussion for the sending of French young men to America every year to study American ideas.

By building up something like the French comptoir system, it is anticipated, the United States may find a way by which American manufacturers may co-operate effectively in extending the foreign trade of their country and at the same time avoid trouble with the Sherman law.

The trade commission is obtaining reports from American consuls and commercial agents in Europe on the workings of the comptoir system, and will soon be able to make a full report of what it has found. An investigation of the analogous German kartell system, it is said, has already been made, but the comptoir system is considered better adapted to American conditions and business methods.

The essential feature of the system is a union of manufacturers for selling in common certain articles in which there is normally little competition, the object being to prevent overproduction, price cutting and undue sale expenses. Before the war there were about 150 comptoir organizations in France, including mining companies, steel manufacturers, wholesale grocers, silk and cotton manufacturers, etc.

The system is not believed to constitute a violation of the Sherman law, for the reason that members of the comptoir may do as much business as they like at the same time independently of it. Two firms may join in a comptoir to develop a certain market and at the same time compete actively everywhere else.

The comptoir is capitalized for a nominal sum; its officers sell for all the various firms whose goods it handles on a common basis and distribute the profits yearly. In France there are not only comptoirs for the foreign trade, but also for the domestic, and buying comptoirs are also in existence.

MOTORISTS' CORPS FOR U. S. DEFENSE

Each State Will Have Divisions to Act as Supply Trains.

SQUAD OF AVIATORS ALSO.

Corps of Autoists Already Being Organized in Seattle, Kansas City, Philadelphia, New York, Detroit and Baltimore—Details of Secretary Daniels' Increased Naval Efficiency Plan.

Washington.—A definite plan for the organization of motorists into automobile reserve corps in each state, to act as supply trains for the army in field, was announced recently as one feature of the preparedness program.

The squad will include the corps already being organized in Seattle, Kansas City, Philadelphia, New York, Detroit and Baltimore.

A motorcar company is to consist of twenty-seven cars in charge of one car master and three assistant car masters.

ters having the rank of sergeant. The chauffeurs also will have the rank of sergeant. Each company is to have a cook, a machinist and a trumpeter.

No cars in the reserve corps are to participate in fighting, as the cars are not expected to advance nearer than a day and a half of the line of kitchens in the army in the field unless the army is on the march, when the supply train may come as close as a half day behind.

It was also learned that the army has a number of sergeants now in the employ of leading automobile factories learning the construction of cars.

Creation of a naval flying corps, establishment of a school for training navy aviators and increase in the number of midshipmen at the Naval academy by about one-half are proposals included in a tentative draft of the naval appropriation bill.

The proposed increase in the Naval academy would permit each senator to appoint three midshipmen instead of two. For two years the secretary of the navy would be empowered to appoint two junior officers and five warrant officers a year from civil life on provisional commissions, to be revoked in two years unless the officers prove qualified as aviators. After two years all officers of the corps would come from the ranks of the student aviators. The aviation school would furnish a two year course.

A reserve corps of aviators also is provided for, to be composed of men transferred from the active service and the surplus of graduates from the school and also open to qualified civilians. A training of from two weeks to a month annually is planned.

Motorboat builders are interested in the navy department's efforts to develop fast motor driven patrol boats to be carried on the decks of battleships and used against submarines.

Three navy yards on the Atlantic coast and two on the Pacific would be equipped to build battleships under the plan Secretary Daniels presented to congress. He proposes to spend $1,000,000 on the Philadelphia yard and hopes to equip the Puget sound and Norfolk yards. This would give the government five yards, New York, Philadelphia, Norfolk, Mare island and Puget sound, where heavy ships could be laid down. It would mean virtually doubling the battleship building facilities of the country, since only five private concerns now are equipped for the work and only three have bid for recent battleship contracts.

Negro Boy of Seaford, Del., With Appetite Gives Doctors a Job.

Seaford, Del.—George Hewes, a negro boy, nearly died as the result of a bet that he could eat more than another colored boy about ten years old. Both were at the W. H. Doctors were called, and for several hours the boy's condition was critical.

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Brown Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand it any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for if I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks but when I came home I would faint just the same and had the same pains."

A friend who is a nurse said for me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is suffering as I was my advice is to stop in the first drug-store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go home."—Mrs. W. C. The French have long been known as the shrewdest investors in the world. In France people of small incomes buy a few shares of stock, or bonds, and pay for them in easy monthly installments.

Some time ago this plan was introduced in America and already over 30% of the Stock Exchange transactions are in "odd lots." This shows how safe and profitable people of small income find this method of saving and investment.

You may buy one share or more, and terms of payment may be arranged according to your income. Reliable information about any security provided by our Statistical Department.

THE LEE COUNTY ROAD PROPOSITION.

Is Lee county going to waste any more valuable time in the matter of the building of a country-wide system of good connecting permanent roads? We don't believe she will if her people will give the subject the study and attention it deserves.

The present plan of building about a mile a year (if the board of supervisors can get together to locate it) is good in one way only. It shows us what we need and what we should have. As far as getting good roads built at the rate of a mile a year, there are hundreds of miles of good roads needed in Lee county and if we wait for them at that rate we will all be planted under the daisies and the first roads worn out before the last ones are put in.

Three brainy men, who have studied the road proposition from its very foundations and who have won recognition for themselves in their own particular sphere, declared in their speeches yesterday at the good roads meeting in Amboy that the surest and most sensible method of getting a good road system installed is to issue a county bond issue and build the roads now and build them right and build them for posterity. Homer J. Tice, whose name is synonymous with good roads in this and neighboring states; James P. Wilson of Ogle county, a member of the State Highway commission and a practical road builder of experience and good common sense; L. B. Neighbour, County Superintendent of Roads of Lee county, whose experience in the road question comes from actual work and study, both practical and scientific, for many years—they all said that the county bond issue was the thing, and they showed how it could be brought about and paid for and burden no one. They showed why it is that no farmer can afford to do anything but support the good roads movement, whether the road is to go directly by his farm or not. They showed where the tax that the bond issue would impose would actually be more than offset by cold cash that would come in the first year that the new roads were built. They showed why it is cheaper for a county to issue bonds and build roads than it is for a township and they proved beyond any shadow of doubt that there is nothing under the sun that the farmers of Lee and other counties of Illinois need so badly in their business right now and for all time as they need good and permanent roads, connecting every city, village and town and connecting with the main highways into other counties. As one speaker said, there is no more burdensome tax upon the farmers of Illinois today than the one which they are being crushed with and don't know it—the "mud road tax." In other words, the mud roads are costing the farmers more money than any tax they could pay.

A system of good permanent roads could be built in Lee county and as fast as the yearly appropriations from the state come in sections of these new roads would be taken over for permanent upkeep by the state and the state money would be applied on the retirement of the bonds.

On main traveled roads there is no longer any use in trying to build a macadam surface. The road is often worn out before the bonds are paid off. Macadam will not stand under the heavy traffic it receives. Heavy auto trucks, automobiles, heavy wagons, etc., cut macadam to pieces very rapidly. After the main traveled roads are built of brick or concrete it will be perfectly safe to put macadam or gravel on cross roads and roads that are not connecting links nor bear great traffic. Macadam will stand up under such conditions.

The farmers of Lee county are seeing this road proposition in a different light than they did a year or two ago. A half a thousand of them attended that meeting in Amboy yesterday and absorbed all the information that was given out. And better than that, it was evident that they agreed with most of the arguments advanced in favor of the proposition. The signs are good.

The Telegraph does not want the people of Lee county to spend a million dollars on roads just to make smooth riding for pleasure automobiles. That is not the idea at all. The reason why we want this county to issue bonds and build a good road system right now, just as thirty some other counties are planning to do this year, is that such an action will add dollars and dollars and still more dollars onto the value and selling price of every acre of farm land in Lee county. It will not only do that but it will increase the income of the workers of this land and will put our county where it properly belongs, in the front ranks of progress in Illinois. There is no sentiment in the proposition. It is business. No better investment could be made. When you figure it all out, it does not cost as much to build brick roads, set in concrete, as it does to build gravel or macadam roads, when the road improved is a main traveled road.

SCOTT PROMOTES SCOTT.

Major General Hugh L. Scott, while acting as secretary of war, was confronted with a problem something like that which faced the lord chancellor in Gilbert and Sullivan's opera, "Iolanthe." His lordship was the guardian of a score or two of attractive young women. Anyone who wanted to marry one of them was obliged to get the court's permission. The lord chancellor wanted to marry one of them himself, but he did not know whether in his capacity as guardian he could act both as lover and judge. His judicial temperament told him that he could not give one of the beauties to himself, and his heart told him otherwise.

When he had been acting as secretary of war for a few days there was placed on General Scott's desk his newly drawn commission as a major general of the United States army. It is the duty of the secretary of war to sign commissions for officers of the army. Was it proper for Hugh L. Scott, acting secretary of war, to sign a commission to Hugh L. Scott which would make him a major general? The soldier scratched his head, bit his pen, and then sent an orderly down the hall to request the presence in the secretary's office of Enoch H. Crowder, judge advocate general of the army, the department's law sharp.

The army's legal adviser also scratched his head over the question propounded to him. Then he consulted the ancient Hardee tactics, then the tactics of Upton, then the latest manual for small arms practice, and following these read a digest of the commissary general's food supply of the army. Then he told his chief to go ahead and sign his own commission.

Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the United States army, therefore today has in his possession the only commission of an army officer containing the owner's signature as secretary of war.—Chicago Post.

Daddy's Bedtime

Story—What Happened to a Family of Four Nice Kittens.

The Cat Doctor Came.

WHEN a strange kitten walked right into the haymow kindergarten that Mother Cat hired the young puppy, Bill, to run for her family of four frisky kittens he naturally gave some disease to Whiney, the littiest kitten, who was not very strong. When Whiney came down sick with mumps and had to be put to bed with a rag around her head, the cat doctor came, and what do you think he ordered for her at once? daddy asked his two children.

"A teddy bear to play with!" shouted Jack.

"I mean what medicine did he order her to take?" cried daddy.

But the children guessed nothing except castor oil.

"Naturally he gave her catnip," and daddy pretended to be much bored with poor guessers. "Catnip is a very nice smelling, healthy herb for all the cat family. Bill dashed off to the drug store and bought 5 cents' worth, and soon as he put a little sprig under Whiney's pillow she began to roll on it and pick it up in her paws and toss it over herself and smell of it. In fact, it almost cured her mumps. But for a whole week her mother made her stay in bed and ordered Bill to give her nothing to eat but warm milk and some oyster crackers. Finally she felt better, and Bill decided to let her go out in the sunshine to watch her brothers and sister play hide and seek around the old pump. So Bill bundled her all up in her white Angola cap and little squirrel skin muff, for, although kittens have such warm fur, they often get cold paws.

"But while Mother Cat had been off in the frozen meadows hunting English sparrows or prowling around her neighbor's barn for baby mice and while Bill had been taking such excellent care of Whiney a dreadful thing had happened to the other three kittens," daddy went on. "They had been alone so much and so free from lessons that they had become quite rough and selfish, just like common kittens that never had had beautiful baths and a kind puppy like Bill to be their nursemaid. They romped around the barnyard, and, although Bill told them not to go outside, they often jumped through the fence and took interesting rambles out in the wide, wide world. Rode made friends with a little girl who immediately adopted her and took her to live a mile from Farmer Snoopingdyke's old red barn. A gang of bad boys broke Rusty's right hind leg and threw him under a bridge, where he died in great sadness of heart, and Mattie fell in with two wildcats who persuaded him to go and live with them in a hickory grove. So that when faithful Bill tried to get the family all together again for Mother Cat when she came home there was nothing left but poor, puny Whiney for him to devote the rest of his life to."

CURRENT COMMENT

Illinois State Journal: The Chicago Tribune's Washington story concerning the candidacy of Senator Sherman, which was reproduced in The State Journal yesterday, directs attention to the fact that Sherman's stock has been going up all the while.

While Illinois has long recognized the presidential possibilities in its distinguished senator, his availability as a candidate has but recently been impressed upon politicians in other states. Now, however, they see the logic back of his candidacy. That is why Washington is discussing Sherman.

Illinois invites the closest scrutiny of its candidate. The more searching the investigation of his ability, character and training for public service, the better for Sherman. He will suffer by comparison with no man whose name has been mentioned in connection with the presidency.

Sherman is not only an available candidate. He is a man who has shown his fitness for the highest order of public service. His nomination will bring something more than success to the Republican party in the next campaign. It will put at the head of the government a well balanced patriotic mind, fortified with an experience that reaches, through long years of hard work and study, back to the very soil.

The Judge's Hint.

A young Irish barrister began his speech to the court in these terms: "The eagle soaring high above the mists of the earth, winning its daring flight against a midday sun, until the contemplation becomes too dazzling for humanity, and mortal eyes gaze after it in vain." Here the orator was noticed to falter and lose the thread of his speech. He sat down after some vain attempts to regain it. The judge then said, "The next time, sir, you bring an eagle into court I should recommend you to clip its wings." No doubt the hint was taken.—Westminster Gazette.

Shrapnel Cartridge Cases.

The material used for shrapnel cartridge cases generally consists of a composition of two parts copper and one part iron. This alloy has been found to possess the best physical qualities—that is, high tensile strength and a large percentage of elongation when properly annealed.—London Standard.

All About Metaphysics.

A Scotchman thus defines metaphysics: "When a man who's naething about any subject takes a subject that nae man ken's anything about and explains it to another man still more ignorant than himself—that's metaphysics."

Weeds.

The earlier you get the upper hand of the weeds the more you lessen their later power for mischief. This is true of other soil besides that of the garden.—Youth's Companion.

Murilla—Do you consider engagements binding? Millicent—Certainly. If one didn't there would be no fun in breaking them.—Illustrated Bits.

-shear facts

Shear facts are important facts in your appearance—hand tailored, made-to-measure clothes are cut from the cloth one at a time—by a shears in the hands of a clever cutter—from the "plans and specifications" of your own body.

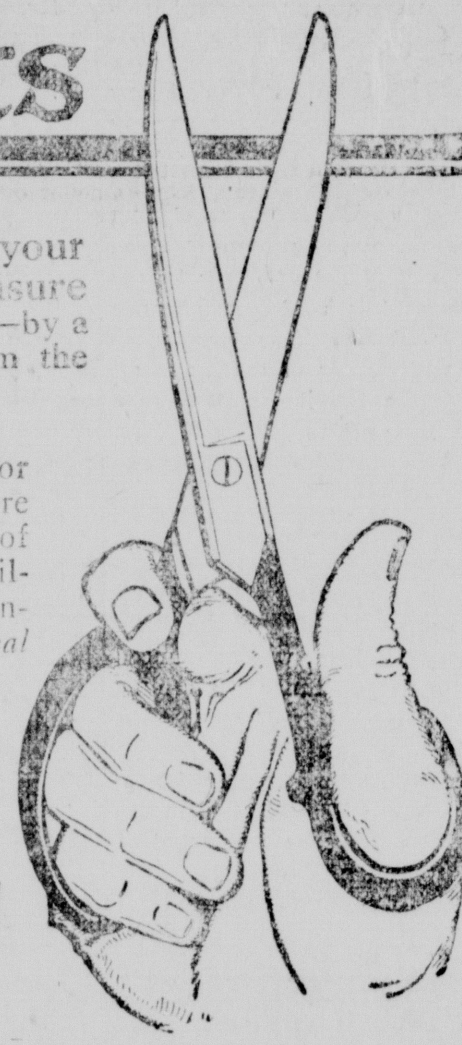

Quite naturally, clothes so made have very distinct advantages—personality, is a very apparent characteristic of them—they truly and accurately fit you.

When you let us tailor a suit to your measure you get the advantage of shear cutting, hand tailoring, attractive designing, fine fabrics and real fit.

Lady Baltimore Cake

The Most Popular Cake This Season
By Mrs. Jane L. Hill, Editor of The Boston Cooking School Magazine

This is considered by many cooking authorities the finest cake that can be made, though in reality it is not at all difficult.

K. C. Lady Baltimore Cake

One cup butter; 2 cups granulated sugar; 1 cup milk; 1 teaspoonful rose water; 3½ cups flour; 3 level teaspoonfuls K. C. Baking Powder; whites of 6 eggs, beaten dry.

Cream the butter and beat in the sugar gradually. Sift together, three times, the flour and baking powder, and add to the butter and sugar, alternately with the milk and rose water. Lastly, add the egg whites. Bake in three-layer cake pans. Put the layers together with the following frosting.

Note—The cake is a large one and sells at Women's Exchanges for $1.50.

32

Frosting for Lady Baltimore Cake

Three cups granulated sugar; 1 cup boiling water; whites of 3 eggs; 1 cup chopped raisins; 1 cup chopped nut-meats; 5 cups cut in thin slices.

Sift the sugar and water until the sugar is dissolved, then let boil without stirring until the syrup from a spoon will spin a long thread; pour upon the whites of the eggs, beaten dry, beating constantly meanwhile. Continue the beating until the frosting is cold; add the fruit and spread upon the cake.

The K. C. Cook's Book contains ninety just such delicious recipes—bread, muffins, cakes and pastry. You can secure a copy free by sending the certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K. C. Baking Powder to the Ladies' Aid, Co., Chicago. Small cans do not contain Cook's Book certificates.

PRINCESS THEATRE

Tonight the Princess will show a 2 reel American Mustang feature entitled "Wild Jim, Reformer" with E. Forrest-Taylor and Lizette Thorne in the leading roles. A thrilling western subject with plenty of life and excitement, one of the cleverest of plots is seen throughout the film and the acting is superb. The other pictures are: The Mutual Weekly, showing the current events of the world together with the latest scenes from the war zone. The last reel is a Falstaff comedy entitled "Perkins' Peace Party" featuring Louise Emerald Bates, one of the cleverest of Thanhouser actresses. This comedy is a scream from start to finish. Tomorrow night a two reel Keystone comedy entitled "That Plucky Dog" will be shown together with a two reel Centaur feature entitled "An Arab's Vengeance."

FAMILY THEATRE

The hit of the season, "The American Beauties," a girl show, opens at the Family tonight and if you are a lover of music and pretty girls see this show today and we know you will be back again Saturday and Sunday. On the same bill will be Moore & Davis in songs of yesterday, today and tomorrow, a very good act which should please everyone. Also Helen Savage and Company with "A Day at the Wild West Show" an act in a class by itself. Our greatest pleasure is in having our patrons say, that's one of the best shows I ever saw, and we sure expect to have lots of pleasure with this show.

The picture for today will be "The Family Stain" in which Frederick Perry is featured. The story is founded on Emile Gaborian's celebrated detective story "The Widow Lerouge" and is directed by W. S. Davis, director of "Dr. Rameau."

Children will not be permitted to see this picture.

OPERA HOUSE.

A special program of feature photo plays will be shown at the opera house tonight, as follows: "Blood Heritage" a powerful society drama in 3 parts featuring Gladden James and Betty Grey. "A Day at Midland Beach" a Joke comedy. "The Parson at Pine Mountain," a beautiful Western drama featuring Ben Wilson and Dorothy Phillips, and "Father's First Murder" a tickling L-Ko comedy full of laughs. It will make fat people grow thin and thin people grow fat.

THE BIRTH OF A NATION.

"The Birth of a Nation," which will be seen at the Academy of Music, Sterling, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 9, 10 and 11 and Friday and Saturday matinee, gives but a faint idea of the constructive powers of David W. Griffith, recognized as the most forceful as well as resourceful, personage identified with new dramatic art. "The Birth of a Nation" illustrates one of the greatest events in the history of the North American republic—that of the civil war. The first half of the great picture exhibits the salient events of that occurrence which came to a close at Appomattox fifty years ago. Lincoln's first call for 75,000 volunteers, Sherman's march to the sea, the battles of Atlanta and Petersburg, the surrender of General Robert E. Lee to General Ulysses S. Grant, and the frightful tragedy at Ford's theatre in Washington in the assassination of President Lincoln, actually live before the spectator of the Griffith drama.

In the second half comes "the second uprising" in the South, this time against carpetbaggism, which is shown in the thrilling story of the days of Re-construction, acknowledged to be the blackest spots associated with American statesmanship. The romance of the "Little Confederate Colonel" Ben Cameron of South Carolina and his love for a little northern girl, Elsie Stoneman, the daughter of one of the great leaders of the dominant political party at the north, that of the northern captain, Phil Stoneman, in love with Margaret Cameron, the South Carolina belle and beauty. These maintain two threads of continuous love interest throughout the story.

There is also the fun and frolic of plantation days, as well as the heart aches and pathos of the stricken south. Great battle scenes and the rides of the clans are staged by Mr. Griffith with thousands of participants. Mr. Griffith carries on the road in his company an exceptionally large orchestra, numbering from 18 to 25, for the purpose of creating realism, thus giving to "The Birth of a Nation" an appearance of actual life such as has never before been attempted. There are more than 18,000 men and women shown in the play, together with many thousands of horses. The scenes are thrilling and patriotism runs riot. The excitement is intense.

Story of a Fortune.

Peter Thelussen, a London merchant, died in 1797, leaving a fortune of £700,000. By his will £100,000 went to his wife and children. The rest of his fortune was committed to trustees, with the stipulation that it should be allowed to accumulate during the lives of the sons and grandsons. When they were all dead the fortune was to go to the oldest living great-grandson, or if there should be no great-grandson it should go to the government and be applied on the national debt. The will was contested, but the heirs were unable to break it. The last grandson died in 1859, and the fortune was delivered to Charles Thelussen, the oldest living great-grandson. At the time the will was made experts figured out that the fortune would amount to something like £1,900,000 by the time it should be turned over to the great-grandson, but the expenses of litigation and administration had been so great that he received only about the amount of the original fortune, £700,000.

How Cotton Varies.

Cotton is usually differentiated in ordinary classification by the length of its staple. "Ordinary cotton" in the United States is of several kinds, chief among them the upland cotton, with a staple of from seven-eighths to one inch in length, and gulf of Texas cotton, of which the staple is not usually quite so long. The longest stapled cottons among the "ordinary cottons" here are the bottom land or bender cotton, with a staple of from one and one-eighth to one and one-fourth inch, and the special fancy staple cotton, one and three-eighths to one and five-eighths inch in length. The sea island cotton, which is grown on the sea islands off the coast of South Carolina, has a staple of from one and a half to two and a half inches, the average length being one and three-fourths. Egyptian cotton is being grown in southern California, New Mexico and Arizona. Its staple is not so long as the sea island cotton, but compares rather with the upland cotton here.

Japanese Houses.

A number of causes have affected the size of the Japanese house, which seems much too small for a comfortable habitation in the eyes of the foreigner. In the first place, the people themselves are small, the average height of the Japanese male adult being five feet three and one-half inches and that of the female four feet nine and one-half inches. As it is the usual custom to sit on the floors upon cushions, with the legs bent beneath, great height of ceilings is not desirable. The low ceilings may also be attributed to the lack of any heating systems other than the small charcoal brazier known as the "hibashi." The frequency of earthquakes throughout Japan has been a largely contributing cause as well, and the question of expense in a country where economy reigns supreme has also had a powerful influence.

Odd Cures For Seasickness.

Among curious remedies for seasickness is that which is popular among the mariners in the levant—the daily swallowing of iron rust, which is obtained by the simple process of scraping it off the anchor or anchor chain. But this is only part of the treatment, for a small pouch containing roasted salt and flowers of thyme must be tied upon the abdomen as firmly as can be borne, this being considered to counteract the effect of the internal disturbance caused by the rolling of the vessel. Known to the ancient Greeks as "rhizan salt," the preparation has at least the authority of old age, while its efficacy is not without modern testimony. And the belt is better than salt and faith better than the belt.

Investment Bargains.

The investor who picks up desirable property when everybody is selling and no one buying will have to wait only a reasonable time to secure his reward. I recall when real estate in several large cities was a drug on the market. Everybody seemed anxious to sell and no one to buy, but the buyers in those periods have realized enormous profits, far greater than one can get in the Stock Exchange. The man who has money, even if it is but a small amount, can always turn it over to advantage if he will wait for the opportunity. Don't go with the crowd when every one is wild to buy something, but quietly abide an opportunity when everybody is anxious to unload and buyers are few. At such a time the bargain counter opens.—Leslie's.

The Spit of Ceremony.

Among the Akikuyu of East Africa, described by Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Routledge in "With a Prehistoric People," to spit upon a person or thing indicates good will. "The blacksmith spits upon the sword he has forged before handing it over to the owner. So, too, courtesy demands that a man should spit in his hand before offering it to a friend, and the female visitors spit upon the newly arrived youngster as a sign of welcome." Even in England there are relics of the same custom in the habit among the lower classes of spitting on a coin.

No Favors to Beauties.

A beautiful young lady approached the ticket window at a Pennsylvania country station and in a voice like the rippling of a brook asked the agent, "What is the fare to the fair?" To which the thick headed agent replied, "Same as to the homely, madam!"—Argonaut.

A Good Plan.

"We should strive to turn our troubles into successes." "That's what. I know an actor who did that. When people threw vegetables he caught 'em on a fork and made it the hit of the performance."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Some Bird.

The roc, a fabulous bird often referred to in the "Arabian Nights," was believed to be of such enormous size and strength as to be able to carry even elephants in its talons.

Brides In India.

A bride in India never sees her husband until after the marriage ceremony. The parents choose the wife for the son of the house without consulting either party. Sometimes the bride is as young as fourteen. The child is gorgeously dressed and placed on a dais behind a sheet, the women of the family being in attendance. On the other side of the sheet are the bridegroom and many of his young men friends. The groom keeps throwing over jewels attached to flowers, which the women on the bride's side remove and place in her lap or on her person.

This first ceremony is called the shadee, and although a man is allowed four wives, no other ever holds the same position as the first chosen for him. The others are of little importance, living their lives more or less as servants to the first wife. As the first wife gets to middle age she is known as the begun.—Pearson's Weekly.

Mystery of a Diplomat.

Of disappearances most mysterious was the case of Benjamin Bathurst, who vanished Nov. 25, 1890, while engaged on a secret mission for the foreign office. Vienna was the young diplomatist's objective, and, with his friend and valet, in a post chaise, Perleberg, a small posting town in north Germany, had been reached. Here Bathurst supped and slept, awaiting the arrival of fresh horses. Waking, he asked where the horses ready and passed out of the door to make inquiries. Eight people saw him go out, but none ever set eyes on him again. Various theories were set afoot—Napoleon's spies, robbers, illness. In 1912 in the forest near Perleberg a skeleton was discovered with a hole in the skull as from a heavy blunt instrument. Was it that of "the English lord," as Perleberg people surmised?

TAKE "CASCARETS" IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS AND CONSTIPATED

Best for liver, and bowels, bad breath, bad colds, sour stomach

Get a 10-cent box.
Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always take this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels, or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.

WEST BROOKLYN

Remember the Hard Time dance in the opera house on March 6, 1916.

The Foresters' initiation on Sunday afternoon is expected to draw a good attendance, not only from the local members, but also from neighboring courts. The work starts at 2 o'clock.

Modest Vincent and H. J. Lipps were in Dixon visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. E. Henry on Monday.

E. H. Ellsworth of Steward was over visiting with I. J. Gehant Wednesday.

J. N. Zinke of South Brooklyn was here Wednesday.

Adam Melibrech was over from Compton visiting his many friends on Tuesday.

Henry F. Wendell of Mendota was a business visitor in our town Wednesday.

W. A. Halbmaier and wife were in Mendota visiting friends and transacting business.

Anton Sondgeroth went to Mendota on Tuesday to take up his home for the coming year where he has leased a farm south of town. They tell us Tony intends to keep back but others fear he will not succeed when we consider that this is leap year.

Joseph Graf and family have moved to the Mettelle farm in the Flatts recently vacated by Charles Sorrenson.

Frank Chaon celebrated his ninth birthday anniversary on Tuesday, Feb. 29th. Assisting him was his wife, his son Lefty, age 15, and the other members of his family.

George F. Kessler was here from South Brooklyn Tuesday.

Jos. B. Mettelle returned to his home at Odell on Tuesday after spending several days with his friends and acquaintances here.

George Fassig of South Brooklyn was here Wednesday.

A nice letter from our old friend, P. H. Plack of Waller, Iowa, says they are fine and have recently moved from their old home at Hazelton. Glad to hear from Mr. Plack. The News keeps his family well posted on events here.

We acknowledge, through the kindness of Hon. L. B. Neighbour, County Superintendent of Highways, a copy of the newly prepared Road Map of Lee County showing all the highways.

DO YOU WANT TO HELP HER BUILD A BATTLESHIP?

MARJORIE STERRETT

Marjorie Sterrett, aged 13, of 369 St. John's Place, Brooklyn, wants the children of the United States, especially the girls, to give their spare dimes toward the construction of a big battleship for Uncle Sam. Marjorie, who reads the newspapers, has learned considerable about preparedness. So she started a fund with a dime. Theodore Roosevelt has not only written her a letter of commendation, but sent her $1 for four grand children, and for "six more grand children who are not born yet." Many children have sent their dimes.

and steam and electric roads, as well as the streams, school houses, cemeteries and churches. The map is certainly appreciated and is well worth keeping. It has already found its place in our office where it is attracting the attention of our many customers.

Clark Butler was in town from Amboy on Wednesday transacting business.

C. H. Henschel of Lee Center town-ship was here collecting taxes Wednesday.

Charles Stout of Compton was over on Wednesday transacting business matters.

Isadore Gehant and wife moved from their home in town to their new farm which they purchased south of Pawpaw this week. We regret to see them leave our town but wish them success in their new venture.

George H. Clark was in town from Amboy on Wednesday.

The ladies in charge of the Hard Time dance are figuring upon entertaining one of the largest crowds ever at a dance here on the 6th. The general admission will be 49 cents which certainly speaks well of the hard time event and a special fine of 25 cents will be imposed upon any one attending and wearing his suit of good clothes. 13 cents will be charged the ladies coming unattended, or as the bill states, Lonesome ladies.

Henry L. Gehant was in town Wednesday on business.

Peter Barnickel was in Mendota on business matters last Tuesday afternoon.

Foresters are requested to keep in mind their initiation on next Sunday afternoon. A class of five or six candidates will be taken into the order on that day and a genuine good entertainment will be provided.

Modest Henry of Compton was in West Brooklyn transacting business on Wednesday.

F. D. Gehant was over to Pawpaw

O. L. Hillison and wife on Monday entertained a host of neighbors at their home. They expect to move in the near future.

O. L. Hillison and Joe Johnson were in Sycamore Monday with Oscar Ottedal, when he took out first papers of naturalization.

Charles Pierce and two companions arrived here from Jackson county to resume work on farms in this vicinity.

Harvey G. Rissetter arrived here with his goods from Danver, Minn., on Friday. He will go on the farm vacated by O. L. Hillison.

ROCHELLE

A Simple Way To Remove Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

County Supervisor of Highways L. B. Neighbour went to Amboy this morning and from there went over into the south end of Bradford town ship.

GERMAN ATTACKS AT VERDUN VERY LIGHT

Bombardment Heavy but Infantry Not in Evidence.

London, Mar. 3.—The German attack on Verdun, in which there has been a lull of two days, was resumed Wednesday night with a lively but futile assault against Fresnes, on the Meuse river, and Thursday the Germans returned to their drive against the fortress from the north.

Neither the driving power nor the wide scope of the attacks of last week were manifest in the renewal of operations and the German efforts to make further headway were without success. A new center of activity in this region has developed to the west of the Meuse, about Le Mort Homme, on the Cote de L'Oie, between Malancourt and the loop of the Meuse. So far there has been no infantry attack in this quarter, but the bombardment has been exceedingly violent.

The renewal of the German assault on the French lines about Douaumont was preceded by a lavish use of artillery. Heavy infantry attacks were made but all were thrown back by the French fire which caused heavy losses in the ranks of the attacking parties. The bombardment by the German artillery, which extended over the whole front in this sector, was also of especial violence on the Cote du Poivre, northeast of Bras. Everywhere the French guns replied with energy, devoting special attention to the lines of communication between the German lines.

NEEDLE BOTHERED HER.

Taken From Back of Woman After Being Embedded Two Years.

Philadelphia.—After working its way along the arm of Mrs. A. Greenfield of 2100 North Wainwright street, a needle which entered the palm of her hand two years ago was extracted from her shoulder recently in the Children's Hospital.

In August, 1913, Mrs. Greenfield was working her sewing machine, when the needle was thrust into her hand, becoming embedded in the flesh.

At the time her doctor advised her to have an X ray used, so as to prevent the needle from working its way to her heart. She neglected it, however, and did not feel any pain until a week ago, when her shoulder became sore. She went to the hospital, and the doctors found the needle several inches under her skin, close to the shoulder joint.

NEGRO IS 104 YEARS OLD.

Election Day Figure in Chattanooga, Tenn., Is Uncle Isham.

Atlanta, Ga.—Uncle Isham Griffin, who will be 105 years old next March, was born near Augusta, Ga., and lives now in Chattanooga, Tenn. He was ten years old when Napoleon died. He was born before the telegraph, the telephone, the phonograph or the motion picture. The aeroplane and the fireless cooker are ninety years younger than old Isham.

No one ever attempted to influence his vote, because everybody knew that he voted the same kind of ticket "Uncle Dan Lillard" did.

Once a young Democrat brought him in a buggy six miles to the polls, but when Uncle Isham dismounted he hunted up Mr. Lillard and voted his ticket.

BITTEN BY MAN; HE SUES.

Victim Brings Unique Suit Against the City of Minneapolis.

Minneapolis.—Bitten by a man he ejected from the branch public library at the Gateway, Jay Smith, employed at the branch, has demanded damages from the city under the workmen's compensation act. Jerome Jackman of the city legal department said Smith's claim was the most unusual that had come to his notice.

"A drunken man entered the library," said Mr. Jackman. "Mr. Smith started to usher him out. The fellow struggled and finally bit Mr. Smith's right hand, causing deep lacerations on one thumb and index fingers."

CONVICT LABOR TO BE TRIED IN KANSAS

Will Start Work on Roads in Spring as Experiment.

Topeka.—Two gangs of prisoners—100 from the state penitentiary and 100 from the state reformatory—will be placed at work next spring building roads. It will be an experiment.

If it works well more gangs will be put out; if it fails the two gangs will be returned to their respective institutions. The plans in detail will be worked out this winter by Governor Capper, Warren Coddling and Superintendent Herr.

Under the constitution the state cannot engage in internal improvements, such as road work. For that reason the prisoners will have to work under the jurisdiction of county authorities. This will necessitate the state entering into arrangements with a couple of counties to try the plan.

The state can loan the prisoners to the counties. Just what counties will be selected isn't settled, but one will be in eastern central Kansas, in proximity to the penitentiary, and the other in central Kansas, near the Hutchinson reformatory.

Warden Coddling says the penitentiary cannot spare more than 100 prisoners next year for road work. "We can work most of the men at the prison to better advantage," said he. "By utilizing coal for the state institutions we can save the state a vast sum of money. Then our brick plant can save the state much money by supplying the brick to the different institutions. Our twine plant is a money saver for the people, and our big farm can be operated at a profit to the prison."

It is planned to put only the most trustworthy men on road work. They will not be handcuffed or chained or kept in a barracks. They will be treated just as free labor. That is the way they are handled in Colorado.

An agreement will be made by which each man who does good work on the road will be given three months' good time each year instead of one month. The good time offer will be the great inducement for the men to stick to the job. The state will require the county to furnish food and shelter for the men. The state will donate their services.

Fifty-year-old Cigar Good, but Strong. Caldwell, N. J.—The work of tearing down the Grover House, which at one time was the home of Grover Cleveland's father, was completed recently. Augustus Berger, who had charge of the work, says that a cigar was picked from behind a partition with a date marked on it showing it to be more than fifty years old. Louis Courier, a workman, smoked the cigar and enjoyed it, although he declared that it was a little strong.

BACKING UP PROOF

THE KIND THAT DIXON PEOPLE CANNOT DENY

Many an earnest Dixon man or woman has publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills.

Week after week, month after month, you've read their statements. Would these Dixon people recommend any medicine if it were not good?

Would they confirm and repeat their statements after years had passed?

Local proof is good evidence. Testimony confirmed years after is better evidence.

The following Dixon man's statement leaves no room for doubt. It must convince every kindly sufferer who reads it.

If your back aches—if your kidneys are weak—profit by Mr. Walford's experience:

W. Walford, blacksmith, Peoria Ave., Dixon, says: "The kidney secretions were regular in passage. My back ached too. I used several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and the pains left my back and my kidneys became regular in action." (Statement given May 21, 1912.)

NO TROUBLE SINCE. On January 21, 1915, Mr. Walford said: "I have had no kidney trouble at all in the past few years and I give the credit of my cure to Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Walford has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

A Martyr.

"When we were married you said there was nothing you wouldn't do for me," said the spoiled darling.
"Well, my dear," answered her husband patiently, "I was thinking the matter over the other day, and it seemed to me there was nothing you hadn't asked me to do for you, but if there is any little thing on your mind you haven't mentioned yet speak, and I will do the best I can." — Chicago News.

His Double Loss.

"I've been robbed in that hospital!" shouted the bony ex-patient as he met a policeman.
"Who robbed you, and what did they take?" asked the policeman.
"Why, one of the orderlies took my watch, and all the doctors took my temperature." — Baltimore American.

Inherited.

They were jollying the man about his enormous appetite, but he kept "putting away," undisturbed by the taunts. Finally he said in defense: "Well, you see, I take after both my father and my mother. One ate a long while, and the other ate a great deal."

The Old Trouble.

"Every residence should have a servant's bath," says a housekeeping magazine. Oh, what's the use? The servants don't stay long enough to need a bath. — Louisville Courier-Journal.

Easily Managed.

First Girl—I mean to be engaged when I'm nineteen. Second Girl—But supposing you can't manage it? First Girl—Then I shall remain nineteen until I am engaged.

More Effective.

Husband—I saw the doctor today. He says I must go away and rest. Wife—I let you show him your tongue? Husband—No, but I told him about yours.

MONEY AND THE HOME.

How One Family Solved the Difficult Financial Problem.

In the American Magazine a contributor tells how he and his wife have solved the problem of domestic expenses.
"When my wife and I were first married," he says, "we experienced some difficulty in the handling of my salary. My wife would often want little things and would hesitate to ask me for the money, fearing that I would think them silly. Again, she would not wish to ask for them, believing that either I could not afford them or would think her extravagant. Often I would see things that I desired, but many times would not buy them because I could not afford to spend a like amount on her."

"So we devised a method of dividing the money. Upon receiving my salary twice a month I pay whatever household bills that are on hand, such as rent, coal, groceries, light, etc. The balance I divide, giving half to my wife and retaining the other half myself. Then we each pay half the daily incidental expenses of the house, being very exact, even to the purchase of a yeast cake. Personal expenses, such as clothes, car fares, etc., we each pay from our own halves. If we go out for a day's pleasure I pay the bills, and upon our return I figure what I have spent, and my wife pays me her half. Thus each of us has half my salary, each pays half of the household expenses, and each has half of the balance for his own use."

AN ANCIENT ROMANCE.

The Story of Ruth and Boaz and True Human Kindness.

The book of Ruth is the greatest pastoral idyll in literature. It is founded, according to the Christian Herald, on loving kindness, the loving kindness of the Moabites revealed to her family and the loving kindness of Boaz, the wealthy Israelite, to Ruth, his kinswoman. It also contains the germ of that great heartiness which is the center of the gospel of Christian love.

It is a book that opens with tears and famine and ends with the sound of wedding bells. The story turns upon the straightforwardness of Boaz, who showed kindness and manliness to Ruth, a member of a nation that was Israel's foe, and in that kindness founded a new house, the house of Jesse and David, the royal line that begat a greater than David.

Boaz is immortal among Bible heroes for his kindness, his plain, everyday generosity, his sense of protection and care for the lonely, unprotected Moabish girl, his dead kinsman's wife, who in her poverty gleaned in his harvest field after the reapers. Boaz gave orders to his reapers that they should allow her to glean even among the sheaves of barley and by his large-heartedness gained a wife and, more than that, made a place for himself in that immortal company which is renowned for naught but for being kind.

Saved by Her Voice.

When traveling to Paris with some other ladies on one occasion Mme. Grist had a thrilling adventure. At a small wayside station a man entered the carriage, and it soon became evident from his threatening gestures and eccentric behavior that he was a dangerous lunatic. Though her companions were panic stricken, Mme. Grist retained complete presence of mind and with the utmost composure began to sing. At once the maniac was quiet. His whole attention was riveted on that magnificent voice, and he remained the most appreciative of listeners until the train reached the next station, where he was secured. It transpired subsequently that he was a maniac with homicidal tendencies who had escaped from an asylum.

Patience.

For twenty long years a West Virginia woman remained constant to her husband, who left his home on a journey and has only just returned. There was no mystery about his absence, however. He came to Washington to take out a patent.—Washington Herald.

Sign Language.

"I hate to gossip about people, and yet I don't like to go around in society as a prude."
"No need to say a thing, my dear. Just elevate your eyebrows at the proper point, and you'll get along." — Louisville Courier-Journal.

Model Man.

"Was your husband good to you, Mandy?"
"Deed he was, miss. I worked eighteen hours a day fo' yeahs fo' dat man, an' he never once found fault wif a thing I did fo' him." — Detroit Free Press.

Peculiarly Speaking.

"You say that Jenkins owes everything he has to you."
"Worse. He owes much more than he has to me." — Boston Transcript.
